Through the exciting theme of noble knights and chivalry, Knights of The Guild provide some of America's most memorable educational presentations for young people that promote good character, high ethical standards, social skills and literacy. All presentations are available year-round, 45-minutes long and are ideal for schools, libraries, summer camps, scouts and youth groups:

THE KNIGHT LIFE™

Interactive story about the development of a heroic knight, from childhood as a "Page", to adolescence as a "Squire", to adulthood as a full-fledged knight. This presentation is provided by two of our armored knights who tell the valiant tales, teach the most important concepts of noble character and demonstrate some very cool medieval martial skills. Children will have a chance to try on armor, such as helmets and chainmail, as well as ask plenty of questions. They will also be surprised to learn that all major world cultures had their equivalent of the knight, and that not all knights were boys!

"GUIDO", THE LITTLEST WARHORSE™

Guido is a tiny black & white miniature horse who was adopted by Knights of The Guild and brought to our ranch to live. Being different from all the other big horses was not easy for him, nor was earning their respect and acceptance. Guido's inspiring story is one of courage, determination and confidence as he overcame his challenges to become a star known as "The Littlest Warhorse". This presentation features Guido, himself, in person.
